Political Network

The events now transpiring in the political world East seems for a time almost to eclipse the intense interest attaching to the movements of our brothers upon an extended and bloody battle field The vital question of a speedy restoration of dominion and peace is lost sight of in the speculations touching the succession to political power and patronage The postponement of the Chicago Convention has from present appearances, for its object the nomination of Gen Grant, upon certain contingencies—among which are, first his success in the field second, the possibility of securing sufficient Union and war element in their body to nominate any war candidate in opposition to Mr Lincoln, and third, his acceptance of the nomination in the event of its being tendered to him As to his success in his present or any future campaign, we have not the shadow of a doubt, that he would accept any nomination against Mr Lincoln, we do not believe—especially at the hands of a party made up of such discordant elements, threatening momentarily to fly in pieces by its own conflicting motions; and lastly the possibility of any honest war advocate receiving the nomination at Chicago is out of the range of human expectation.

The Fremont men are feebly struggling to justify their action, in the hope of either getting on the same platform with the copperheads or coaxing the copperheads to stand with them They already see the necessity of making some move which shall combine all the disaffected votes of the Union against Mr [illegible] has been received has convinced them that their defeat will not even be respectable should a third candidate be introduced. The machinations of parties at Washington—which is represented as just now the theatre in which all the wire workers are assembled—may tend to present candidates of still other factions, or so complicate matters as to make a withdrawal of Fremont advisable One thing is to our minds certain: no trickery will succeed in placing Mr. Lincoln in a position false or dishonorable to himself or to the country. He is conscious of holding the affections of a vast majority of the people, and he is too much of a man to change his course regarding any vital point after acting upon honest convictions and receiving such popular endorsement

COUNTRY NEWSPAPERS —A very popular but erroneous idea prevails that the publication of a small weekly newspaper is not attended with any particular expense which a man of common intelligence, foresight and industry would not be able to meet, and that without the cash support of its patrons (?) It is the experience of nearly every practical man who has undertaken to establish and carry on a weekly journal where its services are most required for the benefit of surrounding country, that the community does not extend that material aid upon which its very existence depends The Oregon Sentinel has the following

A GOOD CHANCE —Here is a good chance —to spend your money. The Sheriff has offered the Oregon Sentinel press, type, etc, for sale, and if you wish to get rid of your money in a hurry, just buy it and continue the publication of the paper According to a rough calculation, a number of enterprising Union men have expended within the last three years, in labor and cash, about five thousand dollars, over and above the income of the office, in order to run the paper. They now propose to let go, and let some other man try it, if he wants to We understand the paper will be continued under the auspices of Mr Dowell We would be glad to see him do so and hope that he will be able to make it pay and labor zealously for the election of Lincoln and Johnson

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS —The Governor of Vancouver Island has declared the occasions below named public holidays, on which Government business will be suspended: Queen's Birthday, Accession day, June 20th, Coronation day, June 28th, Prince of Wales' Birthday, Nov 9th, Good Friday, Easter Monday and Christmas

On Saturday the 4th ult, the first brigade of the Nauvoo Legion had a parade at Salt Lake city The Deseret News utters such loyal sentiments in relation to the flag, that we presume Uncle Sam might avail himself of their services, if the occasion required.

INDICATIONS OF COAL OIL —The British Colonist is informed of the discovery of coal oil indications in the Saanich District, Vancouver Island

A machine for sewing boots is in use in a factory in Massachusetts It is a new invention, and is said to be successful, sewing a boot complete in thirty minutes.

CHICAGO, June 29.—The following was received via Cowley June 26. In regard to Hunter's operation his army [illegible] Lexington on the 11th, finding the place occupied by infantry and artillery After fighting a few hours the rebels left We burned the Virginia Military Institute and Governor Letcher's house Capt [illegible]'s scouts captured canal boats containing [illegible] rounds of ammunition and a large amount of commissary stores Gen Duffie [illegible] the Charlottesville and Lynchburg Railroad at Amherst, marched by Buchanan and [illegible] to Lynchburg on Saturday and after feeling the enemy's strength, decided that they were too strong for us and by night we withdrew having taken 2 cannon and [illegible] prisoners The 2d Virginia Cavalry on Saturday night cut the Railroad 10 miles from Lynchburg A small party of rebels attacked Carlin and Strauss' battery in a defile, drove off the men cut the wheels and took 120 horses We brought away [illegible] cannon, leaving 7 that were [illegible], together with 7 caissons and carriages, that were burnt [illegible] expedition. Six men were killed and ten wounded of the 2d Virginia Cavalry The whole loss, probably, is 600 killed, wounded and missing

We have 100 prisoners, 7 cannon, 600 horses captured and have lived almost entirely off the country

Private dispatches mention the burning of the American bark Tycoon by the pirate Alabama The Tycoon sailed from New York the 27th of March, bound to San Francisco She had a valuable cargo and was consigned to DeWitt, Kittle & Co She had been purchased in New York and was to be delivered to George Howes & Co, San Francisco.

On the 27th of June gold was quoted in New York from 213 to 230, on the 28th from 235 to 240, July 1st 27[illegible] also it was currently reported that on the 2d of July gold was 270 and fell afterwards to 230.

WASHINGTON, June 28 —A dispatch from General Grant, dated yesterday afternoon, reports no operations [illegible] is striking for Jackson depot 40 miles north of Salem If he reaches Covington, which it is supposed he will do with the most of his forces, although his loss is material, he will be safe The same papers say that Gen Wilson burned Burkesville, and destroyed the track He is still pushing South All the railroads leading into Richmond are destroyed, some badly

A dispatch from Sherman says Yesterday, the 27th, we made an unsuccessful attack on the enemy's position. Our loss is between two and three thousand and is particularly heavy in officers We took some prisoners The enemy's loss we suppose was much less than ours, as they kept behind parapets

(Signed) STANTON

NEW YORK, July 1 —The Tribune's special, dated Butler's headquarters the 27th says, both sides were busily at work in front of Petersburg yesterday erecting new works and strengthening the old batteries, and some firing took place along the lines Nothing momentous occurred.

Wilson's division and Kautz's cavalry are on another raid, making a detour by Nottaway, thence across to Petersburg and Weldon Railroad, also Lynchburg Railroad They have not yet been heard from Gen [illegible] still holds the position across the James river

The Times special dated Washington June 20th, says the latest advices from Grant's headquarters report only such occasional skirmishing of artillery practice as inevitably results from a close proximity of two forces The chief enemy our soldiers have to combat is the heat and dust, which has been of the most malignant character It is with the utmost difficulty the men and animals get even a half supply of water

Palmer's raid from Newbern on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, seems to be a perfect refutation of the recently reported march of rebel troops from Lee's army into North Carolina

Hancock yesterday morning resumed the command of the 2d corps

NEW YORK, June 30.—The Herald's correspondent dating near Petersburg the 27th says the rebel tents are visible which are pitched in full view of our most advanced position and are said to belong to Hill and Longstreet's corps Lee's operations are on our left Beauregard is holding the town

Some change of position of the 2d corps was made to divert an [illegible] of [illegible] of the enemy

A delightful shower fell this evening.

A correspondence dated the 26th says that no material change in our position has taken place—both sides confront each other with heavy breastworks Sharp [illegible] going on between the pickets on the [illegible]

A correspondent from the 18th corp dated midnight, [illegible] that [illegible] nothing of interest occurred except the regular [illegible] minutes discharge of 32 pounder Parrott shells into Petersburg We now have perfect range of the rebel works between this corps and Petersburg Deserters constantly coming in

The same correspondence under date of the 27th say that the rebels [illegible] witnessing the discharge [illegible] armed with their heavy guns on the other side of the Appomattox and the first shell struck the [illegible] battery. Brother then commenced shelling [illegible] furiously with 10 pounder Parrotts [illegible] occasionally pouring showers of [illegible] shot into the rebel skirmish pits [illegible] the enemy, the clouds of dust [illegible] proof of the movement of the rebels into Petersburg

The Herald's [illegible] correspondence dated the 27th says that important changes have taken place in the [illegible] of the enemy [illegible] the New York [illegible] under the command of Gen Ransom

The Herald's New Orleans correspondence has the following

The archives of the State of Louisiana were [illegible] and a large part of them [illegible]

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, June 28 The left wing [illegible] and took possession of the Weldon Railroad, four miles from the city without [illegible]

It is believed that the enemy's lines have been contracted and a force been sent to drive back Gen Hunter

About 5,000 of our sick are in hospital at City Point

NEW YORK, July 1.—A correspondent dating his letter from Headquarters June 2[illegible] says [illegible] Four 2 pound [illegible] guns will be put in position to night

The Tribune's Headquarters correspondent says that the [illegible] corps has been dispatched to the [illegible] of Gen Wilson [illegible] Wilson's staff reports [illegible] up to the time of reaching the Danville and Richmond railroad Wilson [illegible] with no opposition, an[illegible] work [illegible] bridges, rolling stock and [illegible]

Thirty miles of [illegible] the Petersburg and Lynchburg railroad has been destroyed. They returned and met the force which had been [illegible] Sheridan was successful in [illegible] them and getting away and would have safely reached our lines had he not been intercepted [illegible] through which Capt Whitaker [illegible]

Another [illegible] of the same date [illegible] Wilson's command [illegible] divisions [illegible] railroad which he did at Payne's Station and then moved rapidly to the Burksville intersection of the Danville and Richmond and Petersburg and Lynchburg roads He then went to work with all his might of a thousand active men and up to this time has met with but little opposition With his headquarters at Burkesville, he dispatched commands in each of four directions where the railroads [illegible] On the Danville road the bridges were burned [illegible] thoroughly destroying the [illegible] and [illegible] rail for twenty mile On the Petersburg and Lynchburg road he utterly destroyed thirty miles [illegible] and burned bridges even beyond that distance

NEW YORK, June 29 —The Washington Star of yesterday, says that since Grant crossed the Rapidan, he has taken 17,000 prisoners not including those within the last four or five days, while our loss is not over [illegible] that number Among the prisoners taken are men over 60 years old, and boys but 14 and 15

The Commercial states editorially on good authority that our total loss in Grant's campaign, exclusive of cavalry and Hunter's column [illegible] 52,000, since crossing James river [illegible] will not exceed 7 000, only 4 100 wounded remained at headquarters June 27th

As to the rebel loss, the Richmond Enquirer of the 27th, gives a list of 11,000 sent from Lee's army, and 3 000 from Beauregard's command This does not include those sent from the Rapidan to Gordonsville, Charlottesville Staunton and other places According to their own account, the rebels have lost, up to the siege of Petersburg 28 General officers, 17,000 prisoners, who are now in our hands

NEW YORK, June 30 —The Commercial's special says that Secretary Chase, finding that it was not the disposition to grant him power to collect sufficient amount of revenue to carry on the Government, has resigned

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The President has nominated William Pitt Fessenden of Maine for Secretary of the Treasury without consulting him His confirmation by the Senate was unanimous Fessenden has not yet signified his acceptance Much excitement exists about the Capitol

CHICAGO, June 28 —Advices from Sherman to the 21st say that since the 15th, there has been no fighting, save skirmishing, but in that the losses are said to be heavy. The enemy seems to have masked the whole country from Allatoona mountains to Chattahoochie with line after line of rifle pits, intrenchments and fortifications, no sooner have we taken possession of one line than we are confronted by another, equally, if not more formidable On the 16th, we skirmished incessantly, making no advance whatever On the 17th we advanced every where, except in the centre, driving the [illegible] from their long line of secondary [illegible] they established themselves in position and seriously threatened the enemy's left, while Howard and Palmer had come up so close to the enemy's entrenchments that they could not throw out skirmishers, but fired at every picket from behind their works The fighting was severe during the day, and we lost heavily, for in many places we were constructing opposing works under a terrible fire of musketry and artillery on the extreme left and right we had driven the enemy and captured several hundred prisoners Schofield and Hooker had now worked their way beyond the line of Hill which are connected with Lost Mountain, and forced the rebels to relinquish the latter entirely and swing across the road that runs directly west from Marietta and Dallas.

They brought up against a considerable stream called Moose Creek Howard's position ran diagonally across the hill, just southwest of Kenesaw Palmer's position was squarely against the western face of Kenesaw, while our left wing was entrenched across the Railroad and extended far beyond Kenesaw in the direction of our entire line northeast and southwest Thus matters stood in the forenoon of the 20th Nothing occurred that day except skirmishing.

A letter dated on the evening of the 21st says We are now within 16 miles of Chattahoochie Nothing but skirmishing occurred

NEW YORK, July 1 —The Herald's correspondent with Sherman's command, under date of June 22d, gives the following account of the battle of Kenesaw Mountain On the 17th heavy skirmishing opened on the right. Soon heavy musketry firing was heard and the rebels made repeated onslaughts upon the position our troops had taken from them, but were repulsed each time Early in the morning Howard ordered forward his line and coming upon the enemy drove them pell mell out of their new position, which was found to be of great strength By pushing troops in various directions and bringing to bear a concentrated fire they were forced to fall back again leaving a large number of prisoners in our hands Their loss must have been heavy

On the 19th the enemy were again found strongly posted in their works on Kenesaw Ridge Our batteries opened upon them at short range, and the troops hustled up so close that the rebels made an attempt to pierce our centre The conflict was bloody, and nightfall found no material advantage gained on either side Early next morning fighting was renewed with increased fierceness, and was still going on at the close of the correspondent's letter

Later advices by telegraph state that the rebels were forced to fall back

FORT SMITH, ARK June 27 —Information has been received from the expedition sent southward from here recently It attacked a rebel force eight hundred strong and all not killed and wounded were captured The prisoners were sent to Little Rock Our loss is comparatively small

CAIRO, June 29 —The Little Rock Democrat of the 21st says a regiment of rebel cavalry under Col Slemmer, attacked our pickets at Pine Bluff a few days since and were repulsed with the loss of [illegible] killed While the fight was progressing, [illegible] party attacked and destroyed [illegible] camp with all equipage The rebels were pursued [illegible]

On the night of the 19th the 8th Missouri, [illegible] was stationed at Brownsville, were attacked by the rebels supposed to be under the command of Shelby whose object was to destroy the railroad Reinforcements arriving at Brownsville considerable skirmishing ensued The rebels failed thus far in the object of the attack.

CHATTANOOGA, June 25 —At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Gen Pillow sent a flag of truce to Lafayette, demanding the surrender of the place, which [illegible] threatened to burn if he did not [illegible] by the rebels 3 000 strong completely surrounded the town. Receiving the refusal they advanced in all directions By [illegible] occupied three fourths of the town Reinforcements arriving the rebels retreated, leaving a hundred dead on the field Seventy prisoners were taken Our loss is [illegible] killed and about the same number wounded

CAIRO June 28 —An engagement occurred at White River station near the mouth [illegible] on the 2[illegible] between 600 [illegible] and two companies of the 12th [illegible] The former [illegible] who after a severe fight were repulsed with [illegible] of twenty four killed and wounded. Our loss is small

OSWEGO, N Y June 26 —The Seneca Flouring mill was destroyed by fire this morning, loss $200 000 insured for $100,000

CAPE RACE, June 2[illegible] —The following was received by the [illegible] The Emperor of [illegible] and the King of Prussia [illegible] to meet at Kissington They will be accompanied, respectively by Prince Gortschakoff and Counts Rechberg Von Bismarck and Hesse It is [illegible] that a formal understanding has been arrived at

Several gentlemen are in town some merchants from Portland— who [illegible] collect of course [illegible] quartz mills whose coats are solely the button holing of the honest miners who have quartz and a location exactly suited for a mill Some way or other these mill gentlemen treat us cavalierly enough and leave us as they found us without a mill and calculating how many drinks we were out on the strength of that prospect

WOOL —We were shown to-day several fleeces of fine Merino wool, taken promiscuously from a flock of 1000 sheep belonging to Col W W Hollister, of Monterey county, weighing respectively, 25, 17½ and 13 lbs; this is supposed to be a fair average of the lot The wool is of a year's growth, of very fine texture and quality The entire clip of Hollister's—of which this is a part—is 120,000 lbs, contained in 381 bales, and goes to New York on the Hornet.

We take the above paragraph from a late California paper. If that State has a flock of 1000 sheep whose fleeces average from 13 to 25 lbs, it is far in advance of Oregon There is not a flock in this State probably which will average more than half that yield. We are told that forty or fifty rams raised on Hollister's ranch, were shipped to Oregon three years ago by a Mr. Lane, and sold to the farmers of Willamette and Umpqua valleys They were no doubt the means of improving them up to so high a standard as this we should no doubt have heard more of them before now.—Statesman

ANECDOTE OF GEN SHERMAN —Beckwith, the Commissary on Sherman's staff, went into the General's tent, lately, and accosted him thus "General, we must make another contract for beef, we have not enough to last two months" "Have you enough to last two months?" inquired the General. "Yes sir" "Well, in less than two months the army will be in h--l or in Atlanta, if it goes to the former place we will need no beef, if to the latter, we shall find enough, so make no more contracts, Beckwith"

Since the occupation of Schleswig by the Germans almost an entire change of the local officials has been made, the use of the Danish language is prohibited in the principal schools, the use of postage stamps and paper stamped with the Danish crown has been prohibited, prayer for the king disallowed, and the currency of Denmark forbidden to be circulated.

It is stated in the St Louis papers that the enlistment of five thousand four hundred and ninety-two negroes in Missouri, saves that State from the draft.

PORTLAND INVESTMENTS IN QUARTZ SPECULATIONS —The people of the Pacific coast are said to be the most excitable class of people in the whole country, upon the question of gold seeking, and with each new discovery, are ready to pull up and chase after it This is more particularly the case in placer mining, and we have had an opportunity to witness the bad effects of it annually, here at home, for several years past, when a large proportion of our agricultural population have forsaken their calling to join the ranks of the prospector, returning with a big percentage against the aggregate chances of success on the whole Not but that the mines have proved rich, and yielded abundantly of the precious ores, but that the excess of miners, in certain prominent localities has been above the resources of such sections But now the matter begins to assume a new phase, and quartz mining appears to be attaining the prominent features of the day But our citizens do not run wild over it, and we may say that all investments of Portland capital, so far, in quartz speculations have been based upon reliable footings, and promise rich returns for every dollar at stake We are informed by private letters that the first two teams loaded with the Ainsworth mill had arrived in Owyhee on the 24th ult, and a new impetus will spring up there immediately The arrival of that mill is but the inauguration of a new era, we know not the end of The rapid development of the Saratoga, in which our citizens are likewise largely interested is an important matter with us We have but slightly made a beginning in these new fields for public enterprise, and yet we can see the benefits to accrue from them Now, if the citizens of Portland will bestir themselves, and make the right efforts a branch mint, with a bullion fund, can be established here that will place us on a par with our growing importance.

NOVEL SALE—A GOOD IDEA —We understand that Mr M Mansfield, an old and experienced Auctioneer, of this city, proposes on Friday afternoon to offer to the generous public of Portland, at the Denison House corner a fine healthy, rooster, of the game species—which is ready for a fight at any moment—to be sold at Auction, the proceeds of sale to be given to the Sanitary Commission It will probably be sold, over and over again, and though it is but one rooster it is to be hoped that it will do the soldiers as much good as though it was a thousand We are told that several of our liberal citizens intend to show that they think as well of a nice game rooster as the Marysville people did of a white hen, or the Washoe folks did of a sack of flour, and if there should not be so much money realized, there will, we doubt not be an equal amount of patriotic and generous earnestness

ANOTHER FOOT RACE —Enthusiastic amateurs in the cultivation of manly sports, are becoming quite numerous in our city, of late We do not hear of their being trained in accordance with any particular method, not even the Captain Barclay Allardice system but they seem to spring up spontaneously, dash off a hundred yards or so, in ten or fifteen seconds time, according to the distance, take their winnings, put on their coats, and retire from the field as regularly as though nothing had occurred whatever. We hear of such a race on the Plaza, Wednesday evening, in which two or three entries were made, the contestants residing and doing business in our city The distance was 100 yards, purse about $15, won in 11½ seconds

MORE OF OREGON PRODUCTS.—Mr Kalloch, proprietor of the new enterprise of obtaining salt from the salt springs below this city, showed us samples of the product yesterday, which appear pretty good, at least to our unsophisticated optics, when we come to judge of the qualities and properties of salt No doubt exists in our mind but that Mr Kalloch has struck a good thing—both for himself and the country at large He has christened the new establishment Willamette Salt Works, and when he has thoroughly commenced operations will be able to manufacture from two to three tons daily The springs have been enlarged, and deepened to about thirty five feet, and have at present a flow of about 12 000 gallons daily The machinery, etc, we have before alluded to, when it was in course of construction at the Oregon Iron Works The enterprise is a commendable one and we hope to witness its success firmly established

ACCIDENTAL DROWNING AND NARROW ESCAPE —By the arrival of the steamer Wilson G. Hunt, last evening, we are informed of an accident that occurred at the Cascades on Tuesday, by a skiff going over the falls and rapids, resulting in the drowning of a man known at the Cascades as "Happy Jack," and the miraculous escape of a man named Brown They had attempted to cross the river above the falls when they were drawn into the current "Jack" leaped out, and in trying to swim ashore was lost Brown clung to the skiff, passed the entire rapids, and was picked up by Indians, about a mile below He returned to the Cascades unharmed, declaring that he "wouldn't go over again for twenty five dollars" He made the same passage a year since, clinging to the cap stan of a scow, and it is said "cannot swim a lick," so we conclude his success depends upon a firm grip Jack leaves no relatives that are known

A NUISANCE —If parents of superior education and refinement will well consider, in giving playthings to their children what influence such will have on their health and moral character, it is no less a sound moral principle, and refinement in parents, to see that while their children are amused with their play things, their neighbors be not supremely annoyed by them It is no pleasure to have, the whole day, a boy with a drum, or trumpet, disturb the peace of a respectable neighborhood, where perhaps men, by the noise, are interrupted in their literary pursuits, the sick annoyed on their bed of sickness and infants disturbed in their rest And yet, is this nuisance carried on this city, in a most respectable neighborhood, by a lot of boys, some apparently 15 or 16 years of age How long must it continue?

DANGEROUS —The dangers attending the running at large, in the streets of this city, of horned cattle, are numerous Besides the nuisance, it is apt to result in the loss of life, as was nearly the case a few evening's since, when a raving cow pitched at a small child on First street near the National hotel, and was narrowly prevented from killing it. The most ordinary country villages have their laws, and their pounds, regulating some check upon the common destructiveness of such animals, and it is suggested that Portland might with propriety do the same

A "SPICY" ORATOR —Scotty, so famous on the Recorder's Docket of this city, who recently smoked himself out of the city jail was holding forth yesterday afternoon, in front of Ladd & Tilton's bank, tightly tight He discoursed for some time upon the immoral tendency of man in general and had seated himself upon the street planking bare headed and bare footed, hailing all who passed "Scotty" is a human wreck, and is to be regarded more in sorrow than in anger

ASTORIA PACKET,—The sloop Dan Hayes, said to be the fastest craft on these waters, has been chartered for a trip to Astoria, and will take her departure on Monday It is expected that some fast sailing will be done in case she should overtake the Harvest Queen on the way

CIRCUIT COURT —An adjourned session of the Circuit Court was held yesterday afternoon at the Recorder's Court rooms, for the hearing of arguments in the case of J A Davenport vs Mrs McQuade, for the possession of real property We did not learn the decision rendered

U S DISTRICT COURT —The jury failed to agree, in the case against Edward Tichnor, charged with cutting timber on the government lands and a new trial will be had A new jury was summoned yesterday

"IT CAN'T BE POSSIBLE "—"But I assure you it is a fact"—were remarks that attracted our attention as we passed the windows of the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine establishment, a few days ago and were caused by the surprise of one, and the assurance of another, of two ladies who were examining an elegantly embroidered Red Riding Hood which was exhibited as a specimen of the wonderful elegance of the embroidery done by this admired sewing machine.

Complaints of Children.—In the case of fast-growing and scrofulous children, predisposed to curvatures and other deformities it is often disagreeable to give a tonic without stimulants, and an alterative without irritation. For such, it would be impossible to select a preparation combining so many of the above advantages as the PERUVIAN SYRUP

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative It regulates, recruits and purifies them Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants —Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere ap20d1m

Coughs and Colds.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off Public Speakers and Singers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket, and taken as occasion requires

Redington & Co , San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast

In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries or the expediency of adopting them in practice It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians Each deprecates whatever is found innovating upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than Dr Osgood's India Cholagogue The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system, is acknowledged by all.

Be particular to enquire for Dr Osgood's India Cholagogue and take no other Sold everywhere

WHAT KILLED HIM!

DR HALL, IN HIS "JOURNAL OF HEALTH" speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question and adds " He might well have remained with us for some years to come had it not been for advice kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance

HE HAD A COLD!

which by some injudicious prescription had been converted into an Asthma Who gave that prescription or what it was the public would may never know " Let me say to Dr Hall that that 'prescription' was not for that is an article that does not engender heart disease, nor is it productive of any Asthmatic affections On the contrary it will cure such affections and as for

COUGHS AND COLDS,

SOUTH WARSAW O , July 28 1863

* * * One young man who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas after trying the doctors over $100 without benefit has been cured by three bottles of your Bitters
EDWARD WOUNALL

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers

HAVEMEYER MANSION FIFTY SEVENTH STREET,
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863

Dr DRAKE Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect One little girl in particular with pains in her head, loss of appetite and daily wasting consumption on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day Her appetite and strength rapidly increased and she is now well * * * Respectfully, MRS O M DEVOE

* * * I owe much to you for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life
REV W H WAGGONER, Madrid, N Y "

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters My wife has been greatly benefited by their use
Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa "

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me
REV J S CATHORN, Rochester, N Y

* * * Send us twenty four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house
SYKES CHADWICK & CO ,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect
G W ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business
H B KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O "

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years It acts like a charm
etc etc etc etc etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras Roots, Herbs, &c. all preserved in perfectly pure St Croix Rum

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c , deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless

NOTICE —Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

The Broken Drum

"You be looking at the drum sir,
She shook her with red head
Its all I ve got to mind me
Of Charley sir that's dead

"It were a Sunday morning,
He stood there at the door,
Crying out that I [illegible] listed
A drummer for the war

"It fairly stopp[illegible] my breathing
Such a wee one to go [illegible]
With a uniform [illegible]
A drum an' soger's hat

"But if laughing in the morning
Is a sign of tears in night
Sure I'd plenty for the [illegible]
As ye see I have to night

"For, oh it's hard to think sir
When my day's work is done,
And I sit down alone sir
Without the little son

"The poor young thing lay dying
All day upon the hill
With nobody to help him
In all the rain and chill

"Jim says—that's Charley's cousin,
He too was in the fight—
The poor boy talked of mother
Till twelve into the night

And then the darlin' whispered
Oh holy Christ I come
Jim say good bye to mother
And carry her my drum

"So—that's—the—way—I—got it—
Don't—mind me—sir—but—I
Can never tell the story
And keep my old cheeks dry

"Sometimes, sir in the sunset,
I seem to see him there
And oh the wind blows softly
About his yellow hair

"I know it's all a fancy
I know he'll never come
But it kind o' makes him nearer
To see his broken drum

A Mormon Sermon.—A writer in the Atlantic gives the following specimen of a Mormon sermon, illustrating the style in which uneducated and inspired preachers quote Scripture

The text was Isaiah iv 1 "And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man" "Seven women shall take hold o' one man! There!" (with a slap on the back of the nearest subject for conversation) "What d'ye think of that? Shall! Shall take hold on him! That don't mean they sha'nt, does it? No! God's word means what it says And therefore means no otherwise,—not in no way, shape ner manner. Not in no way, for He saith, 'I am the way, and the truth, and the life.' Not in no shape, for a man beholdeth his nat'ral shape in a glass, nor in no manner, for he straightway forgeteth what manner o' man he was Seven women shall catch a hold on him And of they shall, then they will! For everything shall come to pass, and not one good word shall fall to the ground You who try to explain away scriptur' would make it fig'rative. But don't come to me with none o' your spiritooalizers! Not one good word shall fall Therefore seven shall not fall And ef seven shall catch a hold on him,—and, as I jest proved, seven will catch a hold on him,—then seven ought,—and in the latter day glory, seven, yea, as our Lord said untew Peter, 'Verily I say untew you, not seven, but seventy times seven,' these seventy times seven shall catch a hold and cleave Pressed day! For the end shall be even as the beginning and seventy fold more abundantly'

Nicknames in the Army.—A Southern paper tells the following

The soldiers in the Confederate States Army have acquired a bad habit of giving a soubriquet to such persons as they see fit, with whom they come in contact. If the nickname [illegible] itself to the party long after its origin has been forgotten. One fine summer morning Gen. Loring was seated in front of his quarters, when a quartermaster approached him, evidently in a great state of excitement

"General," commenced the officer, "I have stood it about long enough, the whole regiment I belong to are insulting me day after day, and I won't bear it any longer"

"What is the matter?" blandly inquired the General

"No one has ever complained of me as an officer," resumed the angry gentleman, whose wrath seemed at the boiling point, "I have done my duty faithfully, but the men are insulting me, sir"

"Ah," said the General, "how is that?"

"They call me Brick Top," said the enraged Quartermaster, "and Hell Fire, is a very common expression, as soon as they see me I know that I've got red hair, very red, perhaps, but that's not my fault"

"Certainly not," said the General, very politely.

"Well, the fact is, General, I can't stand it, indeed I can't The army regulations demand that all officers shall be treated with respect, and you'll issue an order—"

"My dear sir," interrupted Gen Loring "I'm really sorry for you, but an order would be useless I love my men and do all I can to promote their happiness, and I believe they all like me in return, but in spite of the good will existing between us, do you know that they call me Old Blizzard, and what is far worse, although I am their Commanding General, I cannot help myself. Grin and bear it, my dear sir, as I have to do It's the only way to tire these fellows out, depend upon it"

The name may sound anything but mellifluous, but no braver man or courteous gentleman can be found in the Confederate States Army, than the one Southern soldiers recognized as "Old Blizzard"

An Irish Frenchman.—While a regiment of New Jersey cavalry, armed and uniformed something like the French Chasseurs, was passing through Washington with Burnside's army a few days ago the curiosity of a member of Congress was aroused by their exotic dress and appearance, and being informed they were Frenchmen he walked up to a fiercely mustached fellow among them and inquired, "Etes vous Francais?" The soldier looked at him fiercely and burst out angrily, 'None o' your Dutch to us, ef ye plase we're all Frinchmin—Frinch Chasers, do ye mind, and we'd like mighty well to get a dhrop o' whisky, if ye have any about ye' The Congressman, unable to accommodate the "chaser" as he desired, passed on to another part of the procession.

Leap Year.—The ladies' leap year privilege took its origin in the following manner By an ancient Act of the Scottish Parliament, passed about the year 1228, it was "ordonit that during ye reign of her maist blessit Majestie Margaret, ilka maiden ladee of baith high and low estait, shall hae liberty to speak ye man she likes Gif he refuses to take her to be his wife, he shall be mulct in the sum of an hundrity pundis or less, as his estait may be, except and always gif he can make it appear that he is betrothit to anither woman, then he shall be free

Keep your mouth shut when you read, when you write when you listen, when you are in pain, when you are walking when you are running, when you are riding, and, by all means, when you are angry There is no person in society but who will find and acknowledge improvement in health and enjoyment from giving a temporary attention to this advice.

A curious custom was observed on board several Greek vessels in Liverpool on Good Friday The men stuffed an old jacket and trousers with straw and fashioned the garments so as to represent Judas Iscariot This they hung up to the yard arm of the ship and treated it with every sort of indignity that it was possible to offer to an effigy of such a traitor After hanging it with ropes &c they set it on fire and flung it into the water

"What I know [illegible] thing of men's hair but there is an [illegible] Mrs G— [illegible] Biddle street—the lady who has been just twenty nine years old the last fifteen years—her husband died, you know last winter, at which time her hair turned completely black within twenty four hours after the occurrence [illegible]

Somebody [illegible] the absurd appearance of a man dancing [illegible] He looks as though he had a hole in his pocket and was trying to shake a shilling down the leg of his trousers"

A [illegible] in the North has invented a machine for seminaries which by means of steam not only warms the room but [illegible] the boys on a graduated scale" according to their lesson

Fashionable society has generally two faults—first in being hollow headed and second in being hollow [illegible]

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry [illegible] Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system It is tonic upon the

HEART,

LIVER, KIDNEYS,

DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the [illegible] ability which have been devoted to its investigation it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER

without a solvent This considered impossible by the scientific world is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J R Chilton of this city and Prof Booth [illegible] Mint Philadelphia The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see American Medical Monthly, July 1860, page 70)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism Neuralgia, Nervous Affections Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers [illegible]
